COMMENDATIONS FOR KIM CRABILL

WEATHERFORD, TEXAS - The ministry of Kim Crabill was honored with four awards, including Best TV Talk Show, at Content 2023, a Christian Media Conference, in September. Held at Capernaum Studios, the Conference aims to empower Christian filmmakers and content creators globally and to equip them to take the media mountain for Christ!

"COFFEE with Kim" also received accolades for Best TV Episode: Brady's Story: When God Turned Grief to Giving, Best Book Trailer for Girl, You've Got This! And Best TV Trailer for Burdens to Blessings - Kim's hallmark study currently used in churches, schools, prisons, military bases, and groups nationwide.

CONTENT 2023

A five-day conference, Content 2023 was attended by Christian directors, producers, screenwriters, actors, and content creators. Kim not only attended and accepted awards but also led one of the morning devotional workshops, gave a keynote message on how to "Finish Strong," moderated a panel on podcasting, and conducted a networking session for attendees. While at the conference, Kim filmed 20 segments of her "COFFEE with Kim" TV talk show, providing the opportunity for her guests to share their testimonies and spread hope.

COFFEE WITH KIM - Conversations Of Friends of Faith to Encourage and Equip - airs on over 30 networks, going into 150 countries and potentially reaching over 600 million people worldwide with God's hope.

Kim Crabill is an award-winning TV talk-show host, award-winning author, Board Certified Christian Counselor, and the founder of Roses and Rainbows Ministry, Inc., an interdenominational 501(3)(c) non-profit organization.
